

Terms & Conditions

All tickets are sold under the terms and conditions of The Brewhouse Theatre & Arts Centre.

The Management reserves the right to refuse admission.

Latecomers may not be admitted whilst a performance is in progress. To avoid disturbance to other patrons, you may be seated in seats other than those you have booked.

Re-admission to the auditorium during the performance is at the discretion of the Duty Manager.

The Theatre Management reserves the right to make any alterations to the advertised arrangements, programme or cast without being obliged to offer a refund or exchange.

The use of cameras or any recording device is not allowed.

Refunds and Exchanges: Tickets may be exchanged for a future performance of the same production with at least 24 hours notice.

Tickets may be put up for resale through The Brewhouse Theatre & Arts Centre Box Office only. Administration charges apply for this service. Tickets cannot be sold through any third party and tickets found to be resold through this method will be refused admission.

In line with our child protection policy, children under the age of 14 must be accompanied by a paying adult over the age of 18.

Appropriate ID is required for all concessionary tickets. Tickets will not be released without ID being provided at the point of payment or collection.

Please check your ticket at the time of purchase as errors cannot be corrected at a later date.

The Brewhouse Theatre & Arts Centre is a no smoking building.

Please switch off mobile phones before entering the auditorium.
