

the brewhouse

THE SNOW BABY

Teachers CPD session

Date / Time: 11 December 4pm – 5.30pm

Cost: FREE of charge to teachers. This session is part of an Arts Council England funded project being run by Soap Soup Theatre.

Who is it for: Teachers of children aged 4 – 6 years

What's the workshop about: In this 90-minute practical session we will introduce you to a variety of practical drama activities that will develop a wide range of skills including role-play, movement and team games, vocal work and creative thinking, tailored specifically with the EYFS and Year 1 curricula in mind.

EYFS: This workshop will be relevant for teachers looking to develop new ways of establishing “purposeful play” including exploration, problem-solving and critical thinking” and how to give children a range of opportunities to express their thoughts and feelings through movement and role-play.

KS1: This workshop will be relevant for teachers looking for new ways to develop students' spoken English skills, new active team games that promote co-operative skills as well as basic movement skills, and new ways to support students' learning how to use their voices expressively and creatively.

Please note this workshop will be practical, so we advise you come in comfortable clothing that will allow you to move.

How to book: Please email programme@thebrewhouse.net to book your free place

