

CANDIDATE PRIVACY NOTICE 2021

About this Policy

Taunton Theatre Association LTD. (TTA) is a "data controller". This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. You are being sent a copy of this privacy notice because you are applying for work with us (whether as an employee, volunteer or contractor). It makes you aware of how and why your personal data will be used, namely for the purposes of the recruitment exercise, and how long it will usually be retained for. It provides you with certain information that must be provided under the Data Protection Legislation.

DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

We will comply with data protection law and principles, which means that your data will be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- Kept securely.

THE KIND OF INFORMATION WE HOLD ABOUT YOU

In connection with your application for work with us, we will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you:

- The information you have provided to us in your curriculum vitae and covering letter.

- Information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records.
- Information about criminal convictions and offences.

HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

We collect personal information about candidates from the following sources:

- You, the candidate.
- Recruitment agency, from which we collect the following categories of data: name, title, address, telephone number, personal email address, date of birth, gender, employment history, qualifications, personal comments and feedback from the recruitment agent etc.
- Background check providers, from which we collect the following categories of data: name, title, address, telephone number, personal email address, date of birth, gender, employment history and qualifications.
- Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of criminal convictions. For applicable placements only.
- Your named referees, from whom we collect the following categories of data: information relating to your suitability of role and appraisal of your abilities, performance and integrity.
- Data from third parties from a publicly accessible source to substantiate information if required i.e. LinkedIn, company websites, Disclosure and Barring Service.

HOW WE WILL USE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We will use the personal information we collect about you to:

- Assess your skills, qualifications, and suitability for TTA and the role applied for.
- Carry out background and reference checks, where applicable.
- Communicate with you about the recruitment process.
- Keep records related to our hiring processes.
- Comply with legal or regulatory requirements.
- Collate anonymous data with respect to our Equality and Diversity Policy.

We also need to process your personal information to decide whether to enter into a contract of employment or volunteer agreement with you.

Having received your application form covering letter and/or CV, we will then process that information to decide whether you meet the basic requirements to be shortlisted for the advertised role. If you do, we will decide whether your application is strong enough to invite you for an interview. If we decide to call you for an interview, we will use the information you provide to us at the interview to decide whether to offer you the position. If we decide to offer you the position, we will then take up references before confirming your appointment.

If you require a DBS check to fulfil the advertised position, we will carry out this check on your behalf. Due to the length of time it takes to process these checks, a contract will be issued subject to a clean DBS record.

If you fail to provide personal information

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we will not be able to process your application successfully. For example, if we require a credit check or references for this role and you fail to provide us with relevant details, we will not be able to take your application further.

HOW WE USE PARTICULARLY SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will use your particularly sensitive personal information in the following ways:

- We will use information about your disability status to consider whether we need to provide appropriate adjustments during the recruitment process, for example whether adjustments need to be made during an interview, test or tour of the facilities.
- We will use information about your race or national or ethnic origin, religious, philosophical or moral beliefs, or your sexual life or sexual orientation, to ensure meaningful equal opportunity monitoring and reporting.

INFORMATION ABOUT CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

We envisage that we will process information about criminal convictions, if relevant to the post and type of company we are.

We will collect information about your criminal convictions history if we would like to offer you the role, conditional on checks and any other conditions, such as references, being satisfactory. We are entitled to carry out a criminal record check in order to satisfy ourselves that there is nothing in your criminal convictions history which makes you unsuitable for the role. In particular:

- If the role is eligible for a standard or enhanced check from the Disclosure and Barring Service.
- If the role requires a high degree of trust and integrity, since it involves dealing with confidential information, financial transactions or has access to company bank accounts and so we would like to ask you to seek a basic disclosure of your criminal records history.

We have in place an appropriate policy document and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data.

AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making.

We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

DATA RETENTION

How long will you use my information for?

We will retain your personal information for a period of six months after we have communicated to you our decision about whether to appoint you or not. We retain your personal information for that period so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and that we have conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. After this period, we will securely destroy your personal information in accordance with our data retention policy.

If we wish to retain your personal information on file, on the basis that a further opportunity may arise in future and we may wish to consider you for that, we will write to you separately, seeking your explicit consent to retain your personal information for a fixed period on that basis. You may also request that we keep your personal information on file for future reference. In either instance written consent must be provided by the applicant. This is legislated in Employment Practices Code Part 1: recruitment and selection (1.7.5).

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please put your request in writing to HR@thebrewhouse.net.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT
